Election of Workers' Compensation Coverage for Certain Employees under the Workers' Compensation Act OR Revocation of Previous Election of Such Coverage

Section 31-284 of the Workers' Compensation Act requires all employees — as defined in the Act — to be covered by their employers for workers' compensation liability.

The only exceptions to this law are when certain categories of employees — as defined in the Act — choose to be excluded from, or included in, their employers' workers' compensation coverage OR when those employees choose to revoke a previous exclusion or inclusion of such workers' compensation coverage.

Incomplete and/or illegible forms will be returned unstamped.

DIRECTIONS — these directions apply to the following forms:

FORM 6B To be completed by an employee who is an officer of a corporation or a member of a limited liability company (LLC) who wishes to be excluded from workers' compensation insurance coverage. It is also to be used for such a member to revoke any previous election of exclusion from workers' compensation coverage.

FORM 6B-1 To be completed by all members of a partnership who wish to be excluded from workers' compensation insurance coverage. It is also to be used for such a member to revoke any previous election of exclusion from workers' compensation coverage.

FORM 75 To be completed by a sole proprietor of a business who wishes to be included for workers' compensation insurance coverage. It is also to be used for such a member to revoke any previous election of inclusion for workers' compensation coverage.
