Brief Description of Whether the Employer is Required to Obtain Industrial Insurance and Whether a Person is a Covered Employee

Every employer … shall provide and secure compensation … for any personal injuries by accident sustained by an employee arising out of and in the course of the employment. See NRS 616B.612(1).

An employer is defined as, "Every person, firm, voluntary association and private corporation, including any public service corporation, which has in service any person under a contract of hire." See NRS 616A.230(2). "A person is not an employer …. if: (a) The person enters into a contract with another person or business which is an independent enterprise; and (b) The person is not in the same trade, business, profession or occupation as the independent enterprise." See NRS 616B.603(1).

An employee is broadly defined as, "… every person in the service of an employer under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed" (See NRS 616A.105), but excludes casual employees not in the same trade, business, profession or occupation; persons engaged as a theatrical or stage performer or in an exhibition; musicians not lasting more than 2 consecutive days; household servants, farming and ranching employees; voluntary ski patrol; sports officials paid a nominal fee; clergy, rabbi or lay readers; real estate brokers or sales persons; and commissioned sales persons (See NRS 616A.110).

It is defined as, "… any person who renders service for a specified recompense for a specified result, under the control of the person's principal as to the result of the person's work only and not as to the means by which such result is accomplished." See NRS 616A.255.

Reduce Your Workers Compensation Costs

Injury Prevention and Safety Training

According to the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), businesses spend $170 billion a year on occupational injuries and illnesses. Companies that establish safety programs to prevent injuries can reduce those costs by 20 to 40 percent. Safe workplaces also improve employee morale and can lead to increased productivity and improved service. Omaha National has resources to help you develop a program focused on the hazards specific to your business.

Report Injuries Immediately

The single most important thing you can do to reduce your claim costs is to report injuries to us immediately. The best way to do that is to call us anytime an injury occurs, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The sooner we learn of an injury the better we can investigate the claim and arrange for appropriate medical care. It also helps prevent financial penalties from state regulatory agencies.

Ways to report an injury:

- Phone: 844-761-8400
- Fax: 844-761-8402
- Online: omahanational.com
- Email: claims@omahanational.com

High-Quality Medical Care

Ensuring that injured workers receive quality medical treatment is important. The right doctor can have a big impact on the successful recovery of an injured employee and on the cost of a claim. In certain states, Omaha National has established custom medical networks and panels including the right specialists to treat each injury in a safe, cost-effective manner, with a focus on early return-to-work.

Establish a Return-To-Work Program

Another way to reduce claim costs is to implement a return-to-work program that helps your injured worker get back to work quickly and safely while recovering from the injury. The program does not need to be complicated: the most important thing is to work with our claims adjuster to coordinate a successful return to work. The program can also include accommodations such as altered schedules, transitional work duties, or reassignment to an alternate position. Omaha National can provide helpful suggestions and advice to administer a return-to-work program.

The provisions of Chapter 616A to D, inclusive, of the Nevada Revised Statutes require every person, firm, voluntary association, and private corporation, including any public service corporation, which has any person, subcontractor, or independent contractor, under contract of hire, to obtain industrial insurance coverage in Nevada or obtain a certificate of self-insurance from the Nevada Commissioner of Insurance. Subcontractors and independent contractors engaged in the same trade, business, profession or occupation as the hiring person or business, are by law considered to be employees. One exception to the requirement for industrial insurance is if you or your business hires no employees, subcontractors or independent contractors. You are not required to obtain industrial insurance coverage for the following employees: theatrical or stage performers; casual musicians; household domestics, farm, dairy, agricultural or horticultural laborers, or persons engaged in stock or poultry raising; voluntary ski patrolman; real estate brokers and/or salesmen; direct sellers; or clergy. Businesses which elect to obtain industrial insurance coverage for such persons, gain valuable rights and significantly reduce liabilities for injuries to these persons. A business which hires persons who are exempt from the provisions of Chapter 616A to 617, inclusive, of the Nevada Revised Statutes may be held liable in tort for injuries to those persons. A business which hires exempt persons may elect to obtain industrial insurance, including sole proprietor coverage and partnerships.
